DESIGNER TO WATCH:

ANISA MPUNGWE FOR LOINCLOTH AND ASHES

ABOUT Anisa Mpungwe, 24, was destined for great design heights from an early age. A BA graduate in fashion and marketing, she completed her postgraduate fashion qualification at the London College of Fashion earlier this year.

She impressed audiences at the spring/summer Jo'burg Fashion Week shows in August this year, when her keen eye for detail and a healthy dash of daring in her designs won her the Elle New Talent 2008 award. Mpungwe says all elements of design inspire her, as well as music and any particular emotion she might be experiencing. Her designs are for the more expressive, confident and daring fashionista, and range from bespoke creations to prêt-à-porter.

MUST-HAVES Her favourite item is the salmon pleated dress. Then there are the frilled, wide-legged pants and the 'winged' tank top. With these detachable 'wings' you can turn a basic vest into an out-of-the ordinary creation.

WHERE In a year or two we might be seeing Loincloth And Ashes at The Space and other designer outlets but for now contact Mpungwe on ☎ 072 143 2312 or 012 347 2080.
